Initiate a Refund Request

Pre-requisites

- "Full Access" to "Refunds" tile
- Registered Agreement (that has not been closed) and claim(s) in Paid status
- There are unutilised funds in the grants disbursed to you and/or you have been informed by agency officers/account managers to initiate a refund
- Programme Partner (PP) has liaised with Agency Officers offline to confirm payment details and refund amount
- PP has completed refund payment to the Agency and has obtained remittance proof

1. Click Initiate Refunds
2. Enter the Agreement Reference Number and click Retrieve Grants

   Optional: You may input other parameters to narrow the search result if there are many grants tied to the Agreement

3. Check ☑ to select the grants to submit the refund request for
4. Provide input for "Refund Amount" and "Reason for Refund"

   You may enter "Refund Amount" for multiple grants under the same claim in a single refund request submission

5. Enter the "Payment Reference Number"

   What is Payment Reference Number?
   Programme Partners (PPs) are required to complete their refund payment before initiating a Refund request on TPGateway. Payment Ref. No. is the receipt no. indicating proof of refund payment from the PP to the agency. For example, if a PP uploads the Bank Remittance Advice as a supporting document, the Payment Ref. No. should match the reference no. on this document

6. Click Proceed
7. (Optional) Click Upload to upload any additional supporting documents and select the type of supporting documents from the dropdown

   Uploading of additional supporting documents is subjected to discussion with your Agreement Officer In-Charge
